

Overview

Across Central America, Dentons' Communications sector team combines unmatched capabilities, high standards and critical industry experience to deliver pragmatic, highly effective and cost-efficient solutions. In an ever-shifting legal and regulatory environment, rely on Dentons to protect and advance your organization's interests.

Our lawyers develop and implement regulatory strategies and provide valuable advice across multiple practice areas, including:

- Antitrust
- Capital markets
- Dispute resolution
- Infrastructure
- Real estate
- Litigation
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Regulations and regulatory compliance
- Privacy, data protection and cybersecurity
- Privatization and public offerings
- Intellectual property, including trademarks
- Tax
- Transactions

Among our clients are large communications companies, technology ventures and startups, including:

- Mobile and wireless operators
- Broadcasters and cable television
- Broadband companies
- Satellite operators
- Infrastructure owners and developers
- Service providers
- Equipment suppliers

- Electric utilities
- Government and public telecom operators
- Internet and information technology firms

Your Key Contacts

Latin America and the Caribbean

Pedro Muñoz

Consultant, San José

D +506 2503 9802

M +506 8309 0276

pedro.munoz@dentons.com