

Overview

Multinational companies and local businesses across Central America turn to Dentons Muñoz for guidance on environmental legislation. Our excellent reputation throughout a range of sectors is built on a deep knowledge of the environmental legal framework. Benefit from our strong relations with various government agencies and entities and rely on a clear leader in environmental and natural resource law.

Key services include:

- Environmental due diligence
- Environmental compliance
- Filing for licenses and permits
- Certification of environmental compliance
- Certification of environmental international standards
- Environmental impact studies
- Forestry regulation compliance
- Preservation initiatives
- Conservancies
- Implementation of carbon credits
- Paris Agreement compliance
- International treaties
- Renewable energy projects
- Waste disposal regulations
- Water regulations
- Protection of national parks and private refuges
- Zoning and development restrictions
- Forestry products
- Maritime zone regulations

Your Key Contacts

Latin America and the Caribbean

Eduardo Zúñiga

Partner, San José

D +506 2503 9899

M +506 8835 3618

eduardo.zuniga@dentons.com