

Overview

In matters of inheritance, individuals and families need seasoned counsel to make fair and informed decisions. That's why they turn to Dentons Muñoz. Our Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation team respects your family's wishes with the utmost sensitivity while helping to protect, maintain and maximize your investments.

Employing proven mediation and negotiation techniques, our lawyers and professionals manage each case with complete confidence and confidentiality. We will help you administer wills, foundations, estates and trusts with a personalized approach tailored to your particular circumstances and needs. We manage the process efficiently and sensitively, turning to dispute resolution or litigation only when necessary. And should your issue cross borders, our global team can help navigate any legal and cultural differences you may encounter.