

Payment of annuity for maintenance of databases – PRODHAB

January 6, 2017

Please be advised that, under articles 78 and 79 of the Executive Decree No. 37554-JP, every database registered in the Costa Rican Agency for the Protection of Citizens' Data (PRODHAB) is subject to the annuity payment for the databases' regulation and administration. The payment term begins on January 2, 2017 and ends on January 31, 2017.

The annuity fee is USD 200 per registered database. The fee must be deposited in account No. 001-0304431-9 (client account No. 15201001030443192) at the Banco de Costa Rica. The deposit information must include the file number of both the database and the database holder.

Dentons Munoz Intellectual Property and Technology department is here to help you with the payment and to prepare the relevant documentation for notifying PRODHAB of the payment.
