Overview

Kristhel is a member of Dentons Muñoz Zacapa's Regulatory Affairs team. She has a deep and sound understanding of Market Authorization processes, which include the registration of food products, pharmaceuticals, cosmetics and medical devices. She is also responsible for matters related to obtaining the necessary permits to import, manufacture, store, sell and use the previously mentioned products.

In the Corporate area, Kristhel is known for providing legal assistance to non-governmental organizations operating in Honduras, monitoring procedures for obtaining tax exemptions, corporate advice and other government procedures.

Kristhel began her career as a paralegal at the Free Legal Office of the National Autonomous University of Honduras, where she provided legal advice on administrative, civil, labor and family law.
