Overview

Nicolle is an associate in the Dentons Muñoz Guatemala office and focuses on intellectual property and regulatory practice. She assists the trademarks registrations, oppositions, copyrights registration, and enforcement negotiation of contracts involving the IP. Nicolle also works by registering and providing support to the health records department.

Additionally, she is involved and has helped in various projects with international entities creating funds and vehicles to channel financial aid for environmental and communitarian projects.

Activities and Affiliations

Community Involvement and Pro Bono

- Nicolle has provided legal advice and help an International NGO entity with its incorporation to Guatemala, and taking control of a new project that involves a Hospital for people with scarce resources in rural Guatemala. This project plans to bring healthcare to communities in need.

Prior and Present Employment

Nicolle started working in the legal field in 2016; before joining Dentons Muñoz she worked as a legal assistant in a regional law firm in Guatemala in the corporate department. It was until she joined Dentons Muñoz that she discovered her passion for Intellectual Property and regulatory affairs.

Additionally, Nicolle was assistant professor of Notarial Law for one of the most prestigious university in Guatemala.
