

Overview

El Salvador is the smallest and the most densely populated country in Central America, and is considered to have one of the best national infrastructures in the world, according to the World Economic Forum's (WEF) Global Competitiveness Report 2017-2018.

Its growing economy offers many opportunities for developing new business models and innovation. It is strategically located in the middle of the Central American isthmus, and it is a dollarized economy, providing great advantages to regional businesses.

The team of experienced professionals at Dentons' Muñoz El Salvador will provide you with a wide range of legal services in 75 countries, combining high-quality skills with a sophisticated global business approach.
