Overview

Roy heads the Firm's litigation team in Central America and focuses his practice on complex litigation and arbitration. Under his leadership, the litigation and dispute resolution team has developed a renowned national and international reputation thanks to his creative legal solutions, his implementation of clear and effective strategies, and his skillful management of multi-jurisdictional litigation that frequently involves the participation of multiple lawyers and practice areas.

He is a powerful, analytic and reliable litigator with a great business vision. His clients appreciate his adroitness in finding simple solutions to complex problems, his role as leader of a solid and efficient team, and his ability to handle really difficult and complicated negotiation processes.

Moreover, Roy is very knowledgeable about banking and securitization of assets, public and modern commercial contracts, development of preventive legal strategies, and litigation in environmental law. Additionally, he advises on matters of intellectual property and on civil law, and counsels energy companies.
